Climate Change Extension

There is currently some controversy regarding climate change. Some people argue that anthropogenic (caused by human activity) climate change is not occurring or is not very significant. Search on the Internet for information regarding global warming controversy. Below are a few questions to help guide you:

1. What is the evidence against global warming?
2. Who denies anthropogenic global warming?
3. Why would someone deny the existence of global warming?
4. What do you believe based on your research? Is global warming real or not?
